Welcome to the EUC School of Veterinary Medicine

The Veterinary Medicine Student Orientation is an important part of your smooth transition to EUC and the commencement of your program. Orientation sets the groundwork for your success as a DVM student as it acquaints you with valuable academic and student resources. You will learn important information about the operation of the program, understand expectations and discover student services available. It's also an opportunity to meet your fellow classmates, faculty and staff.

We look forward to welcoming you to the EUC School of Veterinary Medicine and preparing you for the learning experience that awaits you.
